

3 Day E-Collar Class

October 10-12, 2016

The Snohomish County Sheriff's Office and Arlington Police Department K9 units will be hosting a 3 day E-Collar class instructed by Sit Means Sit owner Fred Hassen and associates with the assistance of Pennies for Puppies.

Fred Hassen is the founder and originator of the Sit Means Sit dog training system – a studied, tested, proven, specialized approach that shows immediate results in the dog's ability to maintain focus to the task at hand even around distractions in a non-confrontational way. Fred has presented seminars to pet owners, professional dog trainers and K9 handlers across the continent and abroad for many years, while building the largest U.S. based dog training franchise in the world. Fred is constantly pushing the bar higher and the Sit Means Sit system is in a constant state of flux continuously improving and providing handlers the ability to communicate more effectively with their canine partners.

Location: City of Arlington Police Department, 110 E Third St NE, Arlington WA 98223.

- Class will begin on day one at the Arlington Police Department prior to moving onto practical exercises in the Arlington Area.
