Washington State Police Canine Association's 2022 Fall Seminar

Hosted by the

Grant County, Adams County, and Moses Lake K9 Units

September 26th – 28th, 2022

(Check-in begins on 9/25/2022 at 1400 hours)

This will be a working seminar so bring your dog and all your equipment.

Registration Cost:

$300 for WSPCA members / $350 for non-members / $100 for observers

Equipment:

You will need all your K9 gear to include long lines, leashes, muzzles, safety glasses, inert guns if available, uniform attire, etc.

Meetings: The Trainers/E-Board meeting is at 1700 hours on 9/25/2022.

The General Membership meeting will be at 0800 – 0900 hours on 9/26/2022.

Short Trainers/E-Board meeting at 1830 hours on 9/27/2022.

There will be short briefings prior to the start of each training day to cover questions and expectations for the exercises.

Training:

- Generalist/Patrol Scenarios: Generalist teams will be training in locations in the Grant County regional area. The focus for generalist teams will be a mix of exposure and scenario-based training throughout the seminar. Plan to be challenged as a team as well as be observers of others to gain further insight on how others approach problems.
- Explosive & Narcotic Scenarios: Training locations will be in the Grant County area.

Trainers:

You must contact a Host Contact to confirm your spot as a trainer otherwise you must attend as a working K9 team and pay the seminar fee. If you would like your own room, the WSPCA will REIMBURSE YOU AT SEMINAR CHECK IN for ONE HALF the hotel cost, the other half is up to you/your agency. YOU ARE RESPONSIBLE FOR BOOKING YOUR ROOM.

 Joe Phillips @ joep@co.adams.wa.us
 Nick Stewart @ nstewart@cityofml.com

Quarries:

Quarries wishing to attend must confirm your spot as a quarry by September 12th. To be cost effective it is vital you RSVP to Host Contact to be sure we have a spot for you. Quarry experience is not required, but we strongly encourage those who endeavor to be a handler and train dogs to attend. The quarries working all 3 days will be provided per diem from the WSPCA, (if from out of town and a hotel stay is required). Quarries will need to room with handlers from the agency they are representing. If unable to room with a handler, the WSPCA will pair you with another solo quarry. If you would like your own room, the WSPCA will REIMBURSE YOU AT SEMINAR CHECK IN for ONE HALF the hotel cost, the other half is up to you/your agency. YOU ARE RESPONSIBLE FOR BOOKING YOUR ROOM.
